1st Day: Luanda - Dondo – N´dalatando – Pungo Andongo - Malange

Leaving Luanda at 6:00am we follow the main road east in the direction of Dondo where we stop at the river. We then carry on to N´dalatando the capital of Kwanza Norte province where we refuel and take a short city tour. We then continue on via Lucala and then we go to visit the fascinating rock formation known as Pungo Andongo (Pedras Negras), here we will have our picnic lunch and also be able climb one of the main rocks for a spectacular view of the surrounding country side including Capanda Dam and we will also be able to see the famous “rock footprint” of Rainha Ginga. We continue to Malange for dinner and our overnight stop.

Accommodation: Hotel Palácio Regina or similar*** Malange
Meals included – picnic lunch, dinner.

Pungo Andongo (Pedras Negras or Black Rocks)

Hotel Malange

2nd Day: Malange – Kalandula - Luanda

After breakfast we set off from Malange City for Kalandula Falls. We continue through Lombe and turn off north towards the majestic Kalandula Falls on the Lucala River, (a rival to Victoria Falls in height). The trip will take about two hours, if we have time we will also stop off at one of the missions on the way. At the Falls we will have a picnic and also the opportunity to bathe in the waters and take magnificent photographs. For the more energetic, if conditions allow, we can take a group down into the valley at the bottom of the falls it takes about 30 mins to reach. We will also take the opportunity to visit the surprisingly grandiose Kalandula Church. We anticipate leaving for Luanda at about 3p.m. and reaching home at about 9p.m.
