Cachoeiras – “CADA” – Tocota - Rio Queve - Sumbe – Porto Amboim

2 Days – USD595 per person (sharing*) inclusive

Includes – transport in fully equipped air conditioned 4x4 vehicles (satellite phones, 1st aid kits etc) with English / Portuguese speaking driver guides, game drives, accommodation and meals as indicated, park fees and tolls.

Day 1: Luanda -> Cachoeiras do Binga -> “CADA” -> Hot springs / thermals at Tocota -

We depart from Luanda at 06:00am and travel down the coast road, stopping to appreciate the Miradouro da Lua viewpoint. We then cross the Kwanza River and pass through Kissama Park. Travelling down the coast road we cross the Rio Longa river (forming both the southern border of Kissama) and enter into Kwanza Sul province. We then take a coffee break in Porto Amboim, appreciating the spectacular scenery of Kwanza Sul, we continue to the waterfalls “Cachoeiras do Binga” where we will have a picnic lunch. Following this, we will start winding our way up towards Gabela and the hot springs at Tocota (bring your bathing suits!), but beforehand we will stop off at “CADA” a large colonial coffee estate. We will return at the end of the day to the prey seaside city of Sumbe, where our accommodation will be either in the Hotel Sol Nacional or The Ritz.

Our accommodation will be on the Sumbe beachfront. Sumbe, bathed by the Atlantic Ocean lies some 60 Km south of Porto Amboim. Accommodation: Hotel Sol Nacional or Ritz – Sumbe. Meals included today – lunch and dinner.

Day 2: River Cubal Canyon -> Slave Post Ruins -> Foz Rio Queve-> Porto Amboim

After breakfast at our hotel, we will carry on further south to visit the Cubal River canyon, and also some interesting old Slave Post Ruins at the Kikombo salt flats. We then start back North where we will stop off to appreciate the views and waters of the Foz (estuary) of the River Queve. We will then take lunch on the seafront at the old fishing port of Porto Amboim and aim to be back in Luanda mid evening 19:00 – 20:00.
