2nd Day: Malange – Kalandula – Malange

After breakfast we set off from Malange City for Kalandula Falls. We will make a short diversion on the way out to pass by the Quéssua Mission. We continue through Lombe and turn off north towards the majestic Kalandula Falls on the Lucala River, (a rival to Victoria Falls in height). The trip will take about two hours in good weather. At the Falls we will have a picnic and also the opportunity to bathe in the waters and take magnificent photographs. For the more energetic, we can take a group down into the valley at the bottom of the falls it takes about 40 minutes to reach and tough walking shoes or boots are required as it is a very steep climb and can be muddy extreme caution is required. We will return to Malange we aim to get back to the hotel for about 7 p.m
