INTO THE MIDDLE OF CAMEROON

'.....Cameroon, a land like no other that touches the souls of those who visit it.....'

Cameroon forest hunting is exciting and the local pygmy people are excellent trekkers. Hunting is mainly on foot, but also from blinds settled near the edge of large clearings. Bongos, forest elephants, western sitatungas, giant forest hogs and Dwarf Buffaloes are some of the most interesting animals in the area, some of which make splendid trophies. You will be hunting in the Cameroon's forest side, guided by the local team who will take you through the different sections of the forest. Accommodation is provided in comfortable bungalows. The hunting season in Cameroon starts at the beginning of April and closes at The end of July

TIPPING

Our prices do not include tipping to your Driver Guide or Cook, Porters and the Mountain Guide. Although it is not compulsory to tip, if you are happy with the services, any good gesture of appreciation is enthusiastically received!!

AIR TICKET

Also flights are not included in the price, but make sure that you hand over your flight details to our representatives so we can arrange for getting you from the airport and for reconfirmation while you are on safari.

WATER

We recommend that whenever possible, drink bottled water. You may use tap water if you have water purification tablets. Also ask personnel to open your bottles when you can see it.

Whilst on SAFARI

The best time for game viewing is in the cool hours of the early morning and late afternoon. There are options of visiting the Local communities or the nearest lodge for a drink or swim – at an extra cost or rest in the bush if on a long day's game drive.

Before you leave for SAFARI

Ask the driver/guide to stop at a big supermarket before you leave so you can buy bottled water and other things which you need, because it is difficult to find shops when on safari. Charge your mobiles, camera's etc.

PARK REGULATIONS

Although the animals seem completely unconcerned by your presence, they are wild and dangerous. Therefore, do not climb out on to the top of the vehicle without first consulting the guide. Do not walk outside the limits of your camp or hotel or provoke any action from a distant animal by banging the side of the vehicle, hooting or whistling.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Restrictions are to the Military Base or personnel, State House / Government offices, the local communities as these may result to a penalty. Your guide will be glad to assist.

What you need while on safari:

- Passport
- 3-4 short sleeved shirts or T-shirts 1-2 pairs of trousers
- Tracksuit pants, Personal toiletries and a towel
- Light sweater
- Hat,
- Boots or trainers Shoes
- Sleeping bag, Penknife
- 1-2 pairs shorts, Camera and film, memory cards (chargers!)
- Heavy sweater, Water bottle
- Underwear, Sunglasses
- Water / windproof jacket, Sewing kit
- Sandals, Set of smart clothes & shoes
- electric torch and spare batteries (some lodges and hotels switch off electrical power at some hours)
- Electricity: plugs are following the English system. It is handy to bring multiple connectors because of limited time to charge your batteries.

Please remember that Africa can be colder than you might expect particularly at night and in the early morning.

VACCINATIONS

Please consult your doctor or immunization center for the relevant vaccination requirements before visiting Cameroon.

YELLOW FEVER

Vaccination is compulsory for most African countries. We also recommend vaccinations for typhoid, tetanus, hepatitis, meningitis and cholera. Malaria is endemic in most parts of Africa.

It is your responsibility to take anti-malaria tablets and other preventive measures. You should consult your doctor before your departure. We advice the use of insect repellent containing DEET and wearing long sleeved shirts and trousers at night.

TRAVEL INSURANCE

Personal travel insurance is recommendable. This should include comprehensive medical cover repatriation, personal effects and luggage, as well as cancellation and curtailment insurance.

VALUABLES

Keep all your documents - Passports, money and jewelry in the hotel safety box.

AVOID

Walking alone especially in the night. The safest way to move from one place to another is by taking a cab. Rates differ from time to time and must be negotiated.

BE AWARE

Of the distractions by street children in order to facilitate jewelry snatching & pick pocketing.

MONEY

Traveler's Cheques and other major credit cards (American Express not everywhere) are honored in major hotels / lodges, restaurants & big shops in Cameroon. It is wise to bring enough dollars but get the local money from the ATM (Barclay) so you can pay for the souvenirs, beverages not paying high exchange rates. But also tipping in local money will help the people.

Telephones.

The coverage in Cameroon is mostly very good, but in some places there is no coverage. We can advice you to buy a local SIM card that is relatively cheap - also for calling your people at home. It is prepaid and you can buy airtime at most hotels.

TIP: don't leave your equipment in the original packing, because like every country they like to charge you for tax as if they are presents.
